Edison, NJ 08837

Dear Chairman McCabe,

I am writing to formally declare my intent to seek renomination for the General Assembly in the 17th Legislative District at the Middlesex County Democratic Organization's 2025 Nominating Convention.

It has been a privilege to serve our district, and I am eager to continue advancing the values and priorities of our community. I greatly appreciate your support and leadership

Sincerely,

New Jersey State Assemblyman Kevin Egan is a dedicated labor leader and a voice for working families. Making our state affordable, our communities safe, along with creating new sustainable jobs and strengthening health and safety workplace laws, Kevin is committed to working hard for you. He is a lifelong resident of the City of New Brunswick where he resides with his wife, Susan, and their two children, Lindsay and Colin. He attended St. Peter's Grammar and High Schools in New Brunswick.

A graduate of Rutgers University with a B.A. in Management and Labor Studies, Kevin has served on the Rutgers University Board of Governors, Board of the New Brunswick State Theatre, the Board of Saint Peter's University Hospital, New Brunswick Parking Authority, the Middlesex County Tax Board and the New Jersey School Development Authority. He is also a member of the New Brunswick Elks #324 and the New Brunswick Knights of Columbus Council #257.

A member of The International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 456 for over four decades, Kevin has served on various committees and assignments for the local union which covers approximately 18 counties in New Jersey with inside and outside electricians. He currently serves as business representative and trustee for the local's pension and annuity funds. He is a member of the Middlesex County Building and Construction Trades Council and the New Jersey Schools Development Authority. He is a graduate of the IBEW-NECA Certified Apprenticeship Program.

Kevin served on the New Brunswick City Council from 2011 until 2023, culminating his tenure as Council President. During his time on the Council, Kevin worked to create new jobs, fight for and support initiatives for housing, education, and healthcare, and commercial development.

Son of retired Assemblyman Joseph V. Egan and the late Yolanda Egan, Kevin was elected to the New Jersey General Assembly in November 2023 and was sworn in on January 8, 2024. He serves as a member of the Assembly Consumer Affairs Committee as well as the Oversight, Reforms, and Federal Relations Committee.
